R5 PFS Needs Assessment Update Logic Model (2019)

Priority Problem	Consumption Pattern	Risk & Protective Factors	Evidence-Based Programs	Measurement
Alcohol use still too high	East Bay 12-17 year old reporting concerning past 30-day and use rates, especially females	Availability and access to alcohol; Norms favorable toward alcohol use; Lack of or inconsistent discipline	Educational: • Media Ready • Strengthening Families Environmental: • Compliance Checks • Invest in youth and young adult groups via statewide SADD chapter, East Bay Youth Action Board, and Alcohol Prevention Advocacy Group to address policy at local, regional, and state levels • Sticker Campaigns Capacity: • Hosting 'Sober Prom After-Parties' in year 2	Media Ready Pre & Post Tests; Strengthening Families Pre & Post Tests; Rhode Island Student Survey; Local Violations; Alcohol Purchase Survey; Sticker Campaign Evaluation through Convenience Sampling; Young Adult Group Assessment Tool - TBD
Binge drinking is seen as problematic	East Bay 18-20 year olds, especially students in college regularly engaging in binge drinking behaviors	Availability and access to alcohol; Norms favorable toward alcohol use; Lack of or inconsistent discipline; Decrease in social support accompanying entry into a new school context	Environmental: • Party Patrols • Policy development through Alcohol Prevention Advocacy Group of 18-20 year olds Capacity: • Launch campaign to educate 18-20 year olds on binge drinking issues and consequences • Town hall meeting	Young Adult Survey; Roger Williams University Violation Data; Young Adult Group Assessment Tool - TBD
Alcohol used in place of healthier coping strategies	East Bay 12-20 year olds who are a member of at-risk sub groups (i.e. LGBTQ) consume alcohol more than peers in majority groups	Peer Rejection; Poor social-problem skills; Anxiety; Negative self-image; Depression; Antisocial behavior	Environmental: • Continue to assess needs and risk factors related to at-risk sub groups Educational: • Fund and implement text-tip line Capacity: • Mental health sticker campaign • Town hall meeting	Rhode Island Student Survey; Young Adult Survey; Focus Group of At-Risk Youth to Continue Assessing Needs
Alcohol use related to the workplace	East Bay 18-20 year olds who are in the workforce have more availability in work places that are more conducive to alcohol and stress related to the workplace may lead to alcohol use	Risk: Availability and access to alcohol; Norms favorable to alcohol use; Anxiety; Stress Protective: Decreased opportunity due to work schedule and other responsibilities	Workplace • Pilot group of 5 organizations to work on policy development, implementation, and evaluation • Team Awareness • Implement Young Adult Survey Capacity: • Continue to assess needs and risk factors related to 18-20 year olds in the workplace • Develop regional 'Substance Abuse Prevention Policy Toolkit'	Successful Passing of Local Policies; Young Adult Survey; Team Awareness Pre and Post Tests; Focus Groups of 18-20 Year Olds in the Workplace